April 2022

Cherish your time with your family

Welcome back to The Tag Times!

April has just ended.

Thanks for sending us some cool emails!

We received quite a lot of emails after the last issue, and we have included some of them in this issue!

Ninjago's Importance

Ninjago.... The power of teamwork...

Hello guys! This is the first article I ever wrote. Is kinda weird T_T. Basically, a lot of my friends have asked me a lot about some VERY important advice. Oi you reader stop scoffing stop laughing at me even though I have no friends I will LITERALLY SUE you.

Oh sheesh I need to 冷静。Basically right, my friends (literally none) have asked me why I like Ninjago. So here is my essay on "Why you should watch Ninjago".

Firstly, let's start with why people of my age DON'T watch Ninjago. People think that "Ninjago is for kiddos boi" and THAT'S WHY YOU'RE NOT A GENIUS AND I AM.

[Side note to myself: 冷静！！！！！！]

Anyways right, people think that Ninjago is very childish. Like nobody even uses my Ninjago stickers I'm so sed.

[I need to take a moment to cry dont mind me]

Do you know how realistic Ninjago is? The realism of the content is simply amazing.

For instance, my favourite Ninja, Zane, finds out he is a robot. Isn't that so similar to real life?

Furthermore, in the VERY CONTROVERSIAL Lego Ninjago Movie, it exemplifies the greatness of teamwork.

Furthermore, with Ninjago, I have made new friends!!!! :) (flashbacks on how I still have no friends)

[Reconsidering life choices]

Also right, do you know what AMAZING sets Ninjago has made? Here are a few examples:

(From top left, clockwise: Titanium Ninja Tumbler, Cole's Boulder Blaster, Jay's Spinjitzu Ninja Training, Lloyd's Legendary Dragon)

Thank you!!!! :)

The End.

Upcoming Movies

There are 2 upcoming movies I'd like to share about

1: Top gun: Maverick

After more than 35 years, Tom cruise returns as the character Maverick in the sequel to the 1986 action film Top Gun. Top Gun was a huge success with thrilling scenes and outstanding music, grossing over 357 million dollars at the box office. Hopefully, the sequel will be as good as the original

2: Jurassic World: Dominion

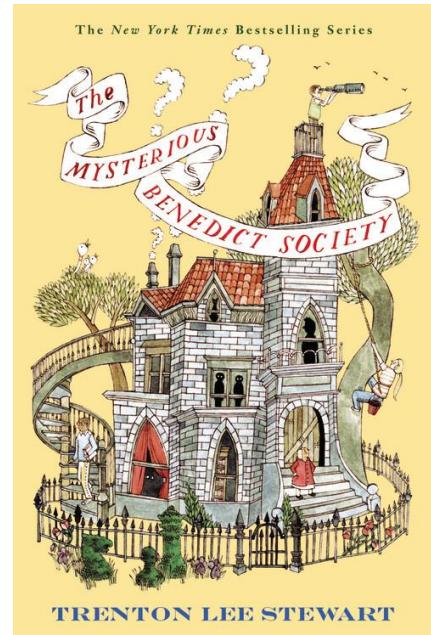

Jurassic World: Dominion is the epic conclusion of the Jurassic saga, which started in 1993. Sam Neil, Laura Dern and Jeff Goldblum will be returning as the iconic characters Dr Alan Grant, Ellie Sattler and Ian Malcolm respectively. Many characters who have been untouched since the first movie will also be returning in this film, these characters include Dodgson, an antagonist in the first film who paid Nedry to sabotage the park and the Dilophosaurus will also be returning for the first time since the first film. This film heavily draws on the nostalgia of the first film and will hopefully provide a good conclusion to the Jurassic franchise

Book of the Month

The Mysterious Benedict Society

By Trenton Lee Stewart

In this story, four special children, who passed the selection tests, joined Mr Benedict's secret agency. In the world, the main antagonist was sending subliminal messages through radios and televisions to everyone, controlling people's minds. The antagonist causes big trouble to the world, and it's up to the four children in the Mysterious Benedict Society to save the world.
